

CONVENTION: The FRIENDS OF OLD RADIO (FOR) and Hello Again are presenting their second annual convention on October 1st at the Holiday Inn in Meriden, Conn right off I-91. Guests are being lined up now. One positive response so far is from Mandel Kramer (Counterspy, Yours Truly Johnny Dollar and many others)...The committee consists of Ed Corcoran, Julie and Larry DeSalvatore, Jay Hickerson, John Schlamp, Mel Shlank, Joe Webb, Stu Weiss, Carol and Bob Witte...Cost will again be $13.00 a person which will include a buffet dinner...Last year the afternoon activities were downstairs. This time the entire proceedings will be held upstairs in their large ballroom which will be subdivided. There will be room for will over 32 display table 150-200 seats for movies and afternoon activities, and over 200 for dinner...We expect again to present a live radio show using the guests' services...Please begin sending in checks now so we can better plan the convention. Make them out and send them to Jay Hickerson, Box C, Orange, Ct 06477. Let me know if you want display or dealer tables and how many. There will be NO extra charge for them...Suggestions, help or addresses of personalities in your area will be welcome...If you have any special talent related to radio such as imitations, let me know for the program. Tentatively, besides the panel discussion, we will have a name that theme and name that show contest with prizes...Please publicize this in newsletters, etc. Tell your friends...PLAN NOW. If we see an exceptionally large turnout we will have Holiday Inn expand their facilities for dinner...Each issue of Hello Again will keep you up to date.

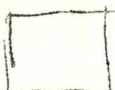

COLLECTORS LIST: I will start typing the collectors list this week. It may take a while. Many of you sent so much info I will have to edit some of it. As of April 9th I received 170 responses.

SUSPENSE: Suspense, as many of you know, is one of my favorites. There were about 940 broadcasts, 155 of which were repeats. This leaves about 785 different shows. On the other hand, I am missing about 55. If you have sources too hard to get shows I need, and I will send you a list of the shows I need. I am missing 23 in 1951 alone.

DATES: Correct date for NELSON ENDY Coogan on Theatra show is 12/6/44. The correct date for THE CIRCLE with J Iturbi is 1/22/39.
